About Urban Forum as Hosting Organisation: Urban Forum is a non-government organization training organization established to support civic initiatives, entrepreneurship, social innovation, education, and implementation of green initiatives in our cities. Urban Forum was created by people with international experience and local ambition to make our immediate surroundings better. We want to actively face the challenges of the future - from the digitization of processes and climate changes, through energy and health-related activities of our citizens, to ecosystem actions and the building of communities. Our goal is to design and implement new solutions, technologies, civic initiatives, and models of local community participation in areas of key importance for the contemporary world of challenges based on European experience. We have a team of 13 employees and trainers as paid staff, and we have 15 colleagues working on a contractual basis (experts).

About Kracow: Our training will take place in one of the most beautiful cities in Poland. Krakow – so-called the city of Kings – its is a vibrant city where you can never get bored. In part this is due to its strong student presence with over 100,000 students in the city. From Poland and all over the world. The city, known for its UNESCO World Heritage, Old Town, is a place where tradition mixes with modern innovation and progress on daily basis. You can visit the stunning Wawel Royal Castle in the morning and later that day attended, a conference, or concert at the cutting edge ICE Congress Centre. The magical atmosphere of the city creates a perfect environment for creative thinking and actions, especially in the creative fields. Krakow's history is also deeply rich and important. It is an excellent opportunity for visitors to learn about it and spread it abroad. Krakow can be proud of its beautiful, UNESCO World Heritage, city.
